ANNOUNCEMENTS

Welcome to our church this holy Sabbath. We'd like to welcome everyone, guests as well as members, to worship, Bible Study, fellowship, and even community engagement today.

Fellowship Dinner follows the worship service today, and all are invited to join. After that, we'd like to see about 40 or more people participate for about one hour going door-to-door to share The Great Controversy books with others, as well as invitations to our community outreach ministries.

We express profound thanks to Mauricio Jaldin, our summer ministerial intern, for faithfully serving us these last 10 weeks. We pray that the Lord continues to bless him as he goes to Alabama to conduct evangelism, and then returns to Southern to complete his pastoral studies.

The next two Sabbaths will focus on mission service. Next Sabbath, Seth Parker will share with us about ChildImpact International and their ministry to children around the world. There will be opportunities for members to sponsor a child in need. The following Sabbath, David Knott will be sharing with us the joys and challenges of serving in Bolivia. Plan to be here for these Sabbaths and be blessed!
