

We missed the Religious Liberty sermon and offering due to the bad weather two weeks ago. However, you can still give through the month of February. Simply write "Religious Liberty" in the extra line in the Conference section of the tithe envelope. This offering is used to sponsor Liberty magazine subscriptions to high-level government officials, federal and state judges, and prominent social and religious leaders throughout North America. Some of it also goes to defend members in court to preserve religious liberty. We're hoping 10 families may choose to give at least $5 each towards this fund this year.

We plan a baptism for next Sabbath, and baby dedications for the following two Sabbaths after that.

Pastor Ron Clouzet is speaking in San Antonio, Texas, this weekend, giving a prayer conference.

The Interactive Bible Class is for new believers and inquiring minds. It meets in the Fellowship Hall Tuesdays and Fridays at 6:30 p.m., focusing on the study of Israel and the End of the World, and Sabbath mornings at 9:45 a.m. (new time), focusing on the Sabbath School lesson. All are welcome.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Welcome to our services, everyone! We are delighted you have chosen to study, worship, and fellowship together with us this Sabbath. The speaker for the worship service today is Assdhy Lolowang, our Southern Adventist University ministerial extern.

A new series of sermons will begin next Sabbath entitled In the Beginning: The Stories of Genesis. The Book of Genesis is the foundation for everything else in the Bible. This would be an excellent series to invite skeptical guests, inquirers, or skeptical guests. Insights will be offered that will make God's Word come alive. The series will last multiple weeks. Plan to come to as many as possible!

There will be a Church Business Meeting on February 15, at 7:00 p.m., via Zoom (see link on back of the bulletin). Every East Ridge Church member is welcome to attend. We will be addressing the church budget for 2025.
